We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your cooperation and your support as well as express our most sincere gratitude.

We have determined to raise price of some products due to the recent increase in raw material costs. We have been working to reduce our initial cost by improving the manufacturing process but at this rate we have no other way than to ask for price hike.

Thus, we sincerely regret that we have no choice for price revision of below products. We would like to ask for your understanding of the various situations after obtaining them.

Targets :

- All blower models (including option parts)
- Environmental equipment (some models)

Details :

- The prices of the target products will be increased from between 10 to 15 %.
- Elimination of regular price (manufacturer's standard price)

Price revision date :

- February 1st ,2022
